- Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

To perform the following public relations services:

Research attitudes in the U.S. concerning Japan's fishing operations in waters outside Japan.

Provide public relations counseling to the Association.

Monitor communications media for information and material deemed to be of interest to the Association and report appropriate items to the Association.

Prepare public relations material and disseminate to appropriate communications media, government officials, private organizations.

Conduct other public relations activities as may be requested by the Association.

5. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

The activities described in section 4 require:

Writing of background papers and policy statements.
Writing of press releases.
Answering queries by the media and the public.
Reading and reporting on the reaction to the program by the U.S. public, to the Japanese client.
Assist representatives of the client in their Washington work.

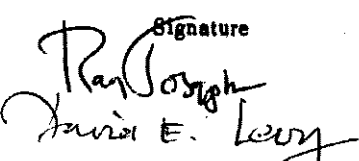

6. Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act?^{1/} Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

The Japan Fisheries Association feels that the proposed fee on foreign vessels fishing within the 200 mile limit, which becomes effective March 1, 1977 is too high for Japanese vessels.

Our assignment is to put before the U.S. public the necessity of adjusting the tariff, in the interest of supplying the Japanese population with their main source of animal protein at an affordable price. The Japan Fisheries Information Center, New York (International Public Relations Co. Ltd. New York) will carry out this assignment through press releases, press conferences, published position papers, and other types of communications.

The Japan Fisheries Information Center (Washington) which is under the direction of Ernest Wittenberg Associates, Inc., Washington, D.C. and which has filed separately will release this type of information in Washington, D.C.
